79. Narrative ACO Watt responded to a call for a dog attacking livestock at the above location. The livestock was known to be goats and requested a police officer as well and Officer G. Trane (352) also arrived. Upon arrival a husky could be seen chasing horses on the left side of a barn. Karen Bruno with a rifle requested the dog not be shot if possible and be careful of the horses. ACO Watt went through the barn to a gate on the back left. There were two horses and a husky with no collar attacking one biting at the rear legs. That horse was running.		80. NYSPIN Message No.		81. Complaint Signature ACO Michael A. Watt		82. Block No.	and banging into the fence. The other horse was running back and forth on the right. The ACO yelled and the dog turned and growled at me and returned to chase and bite at the dog. Any attempt to enter was abandoned as the horses might escape (onto Rt 396), run over the ACO or the dog might bite. The dog was destroyed by gunshots from the ACO as an attacking dangerous dog. Officer G. Travis pulled in the driveway behind the ACO Van at somepoint during the above events and the dog owner Jordan Decker pulled in behind him. Jordan had been looking for the escaped female husky. ACO Watt told Mr. Decker he was sorry that this had to happen but Mr. Decker was understandable upset. The bagged animal was turned over to Mr. Decker. The confined four goats were checked and aside from still being traumatized appeared physically OK. The two horses could not yet be approached for examination as they were too skittish. A third horse was way back in the rear pasture and was not involved nor were chickens that were confined in the barn.
